Eduardo Ordonez (Sanchez) stands in between his children (L) Carlos and (R) Judith in his recently opened Mexican restaurant Hacienda Cuajimalpa.

New Mexican eatery has authentic taste

Eduardo Sanchez and wife, Miriam Mayen, moved to the Valley 12 years ago from Mexico City with a dream to open their own restaurant. Since that time, the Ordonez Mayens have worked hard together to make Hacienda Cuajimalpa a dream come true.

"The food is authentic Mexican food. It's how my mom, my wife and my sister make it at home," Eduardo said.

Tyler Walters of Driggs, who ordered a torta said last week, "I thought it was amazing. Good food, authentic food. Service was good. I plan on eating there again."

The menu includes tacos, tortas, tostadas, burritos, chimichangas, mulitas, quesadillas, enchiladas, plato specials, sopas, and gorditas. Drinks include Jarrito, Sidral Mundet, Sangrio, Boing, as well as both Coke and Pepsi products. Hacienda Cuajimalpa also serves all types seafood, including cocktail shrimp. The store also has a retail section of cooking products and popular retail that you can find in Mexico.

Located at 528 Valley Center Drive in Driggs (the Subway shopping plaza), Hacienda Cuajimalpa is open Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Sundays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Call the restaurant at (208) 354-0121 for more information.
